

PUBLICATION NAME : The Asian Age
CITY WHERE IT APPEARED : Mumbai
DATE : 17-07-2018
PAGE NO. : 4

Nitin Gadkari

Waste to Energy plant inaugurated

Nagpur: Essel Infraprojects Limited (EIL), announced its first Waste to Energy(WtE) plant in Maharashtra in Nagpur. The Bhoomipujan of the plant was held on Monday.

The minister for road transport & highways, shipping and water resources, river development & Ganga rejuvenation Nitin Gadkari and chief minister Devendra Fadnavis graced the occasion.

“We thank Mr Gadkari, Mr Fadnavis and Mr C. Bawankule for their presence on the occasion of ground breaking ceremony of Solid Waste treatment plant at Nagpur. This will be a catalyst to provide cleaner air, water for citizens,” said Subhash Chandra, Essel Group chairman. EIL has successfully commenced its state-of-the-art WtE and Collection & Transportation (C&T) projects and operations in Jabalpur (Madhya Pradesh), Ranchi (Jharkhand) and Amritsar (Punjab).